From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Go to Sleep

We were ... around Bill Webster's parlor Friday evening and the talk turned to the best way of overcoming sleeplessness ... like breathing real slow and deep ... counting that you watch a train ... simply throwing away the pillow ... sheep.

The consensus favored counting sheep. But right away was the question: what kind of sheep? There was some votes for counting Merinos, Shropshires, Oxfords and Dorsets. Ed Mapes said he had best luck counting crossbreeds.

Finally, Bert Childers spoke up with his formula: A light snack and a mellow glass of beer at bedtime. Sort of puts you in the mood for quiet thoughts and peace of mind. Lets you relax ... and "ho hum," off to pleasant dreams!

From where I sit, there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer to smooth away the crosses of the day, relax a body, and put the way for a good night's sleep. Try it, and see if I'm not right.

Uncle Sam Says

If you can't write a good big figure in the space above then you'd be wise to adopt a method of savings that millions of Americans have found is absolutely sure fire. This method is the regular buying of U. S. Savings Bonds. People on payroll plans. If you are on a payroll, through the Payroll Savings Plan. If you are a professional man or self-employed, through the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. By signing up on either of these, twelve months from now you will be able to write a nice healthy figure in that space up above.

NOTICE TO OUR READERS:

Your editor has not had a vacation since September, 1931. He and his wife feel they are "due a week off!" Therefore we plan to be "out of town" all of next week. We have arranged to have the Times-Virginian issued as usual next Thursday. All advertising copy and job printing will be taken care of. However, it will probably be necessary to hold over most news copy until the issue of the following week. We thank you in advance for co-operation. —The Editor.

Results of Town Election Here Tuesday

Appomattox voters elected G. B. Buchanan as mayor and named six members of the town council in an election here Tuesday. A total of 221 votes were cast. The new officials take office in September.

The results:

For mayor: Buchanan, 189.

For council (six elected): Chas. F. James, 194 J. E. Jamerson, 185 J. H. Lucado, 176 David T. Robertson, 162 C. K. Hunter, 146 C. S. Jenkins, 141 C. Lewis McDearmon, 101 H. G. Johnson, 73.

The above results are the unofficial tabulation made on Tuesday night. Mr. Robertson was a "write-in" candidate, having announced last Thursday.

The present council is composed of J. E. Jamerson, G. B. Buchanan, C. K. Hunter, C. S. Jenkins, J. H. Lucado and C. Lewis McDearmon.

Good News On REA Line

Senator Chas. T. Moses stated yesterday that he had received notice from the State Corporation Commission advising that new Federal funds, up to $373,000.00 had been made available for the central Virginia Electric Cooperative, and this company has been urged to proceed with all possible haste in serving electric power in its area. Many prospective patrons in Appomattox County, notably in the Stonewall section, have been waiting on the co-op for current, and it is hoped that they will soon be supplied.

Auxiliary Program

Mrs. L. Cavell McKenzie, president of the local American Legion Auxiliary, announces that the sale of poppies on May 24th was most successful and that the chairman of the sale, Mrs. D. T. Robertson, has reported that $115.00 has been cleared on the sale.

The Legion Auxiliary wishes to express its thanks to the general public for the whole-hearted cooperation given in flying poppies, so that the money obtained from their sale may help toward the welfare of veteran's families and children in Appomattox County and be used for rehabilitation purposes and entertainment for the hospitalized veterans in Virginia.

Forty dollars, the cost of the poppies, purchased by the Auxiliary went to the disabled veterans who made them, thereby giving the veteran some small financial benefit for his efforts.

On Monday night, June 9, the Auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. R. B. Haley. Mrs. P. M. Burton, child welfare chairman, is preparing for a clothing drive in August to be sponsored by the Auxiliary.

At Monday's meeting, reports were given on child welfare, rehabilitation, Americanism and national defense, as well as a history of the year's report by Miss Flora Belle Williams, historian. The following members were appointed to serve on the nominating committee for the election of officers in July: Mrs. L. A. Young, Mrs. C. T. Moses, Jr. and Mrs. E. D. Tegethoff.

Prof. Crawley Honored At A. H. S. Finals

The 1946-47 term of the Appomattox High School came to a close on Friday, June 6, when commencement exercises were held at the auditorium, which was taxed to capacity, and where 63 graduates were awarded diplomas by Professor Lindsay Crawley.

Rev. J. Marshall Walker, pastor of Liberty Baptist Church, offered the invocation, and Charles Crawley introduced the speaker, Watkins M. Abbitt, who addressed the graduates. The scholarship medal was presented to Thomas Mayhersy by Mr. Crawley, who announced that Miss Bolling Conner tied with the winner for that honor.

Miss Joyce Winefield was awarded a prize for the best essay on the alcohol problem, given by W. P. Crowgey.

Gifts were presented by Miss Kate Franklin, instructor in music for the school, on behalf of the faculty and student body, to Prof. Crawley and "Uncle Bob" Craig. The former received a typewriter, and the latter a suit of clothes. Prof. Crawley, who is retiring at this time, has served the school for 39 years in the capacity of principal, and "Uncle Bob" as janitor for the same number of years.

Jerry A. Burke, superintendent of schools for the county, addressed the audience, expressing appreciation for the contribution to education in the county made by the retiring principal, and also to "Uncle Bob" for his faithful service. He presented to Mr. Crawley a handsome gold watch, a gift from the alumni of the school, and announced that a portrait would be painted of him in the near future, and hung on the walls of the school in his honor, that he might be remembered down through the years as an educator of rare ability. He presented to "Uncle Bob" a check for $100, from the alumni, out of appreciation from them for his many courtesies during years gone by.

After the exercises, an informal reception, honoring Prof. and Mrs. Crawley, was held at the County Library, with the alumni as guests.

To the teachers and pupils of the Appomattox High School:

At the commencement exercises last week, I was taken by surprise and presented a very splendid typewriter by the pupils and teachers of the school of this year. For fear all were not present, I wish to take this opportunity to express again to them how much I appreciate the elegant gift and the generous spirit which prompted it. I want to thank one and all who took part in this expression of their loyalty and friendship. I assure you I prize it very highly. Sincerely,

L. Crawley, principal.

To the alumni of the Appomattox High School:

At the exercises of the commencement last week, the 39 graduating classes, through their spokesman, Mr. J. A. Burke, presented me with a very fine gold watch. Knowing that all were not present, I wish to take this opportunity to thank each one who so kindly contributed to this gift as an appreciation of my services during the years. I feel deeply grateful for this mark of esteem and respect you have shown me. Sincerely,

L. Crawley, Principal, A.H.S.

ON COLLEGE HONOR LIST

Of the 129 students receiving degrees from State Teachers College, Farmville, last week five graduated with high honors, while 28 were graduated with honor. Among these was Miss Elizabeth Lee Carter, of Appomattox, who received the B. S. in Education degree.

To be graduated with honor a student must have a general average of B for the four years of college.

BOND SALES IN MAY

Sales of Federal Savings bonds in Virginia during May showed a decline. Sales for the month in Appomattox County were $4,317.25.

State auto inspection will begin July 1st.
